Fire Procedure Log Cabin

Please make sure your group members, participants are aware of the fire procedure.

If there is a fire please sound the alarm by shouting Fire! If able to safely please press the red fire alarm button by the front door to set off the alarms.

Leave by the nearest exit, i.e. the front door or windows can be opened fully to climb out of if needs be.

Ensure everyone is out of the building and carry out any necessary head count. Don't forget to check the toilets.

An assembly point is provided at the rear of the tearooms in front of the rowing club shed. (Green sign)

Call the fire brigade 999 if necessary.

If safe to do so after everyone is evacuated from the building. Ensure all fire doors are closed (door between lobby and main hall and cupboards) and fight fire with fire extinguisher. Two are provided. One in the main hall and one by the toilets in the lobby. Instructions are on each extinguisher and on the wall next to them.

Do not at any time put yourself at risk. If in doubt get out and call 999 During daytime normal working hours, the nearest phones are in the site office or tearoom. If not, a mobile phone will need to be used. The site address is as follows; Talkin Tarn Country Park, Tarn Road, Brampton, Cumbria, CA8 1HN. Tel: 016977 3129

If staff are on site, please inform them as soon as possible of any incident.
